

INSTRUCTIONS TO PRO SE LITIGANTS IN DIVORCE CASES
PLEASE READ COMPLETELY

Court Administrators, Court Coordinators, nor any personnel of the District Clerk's Office can practice law or give you any type of legal advice.
Please do not ask them to do so.

If you choose to represent yourself in a divorce, you MUST comply with the following Court rules before asking the Court to grant a divorce:

1. ALL pleadings and Court orders MUST appear neat, clean, with no smudges or strike-overs.
2. ALL fill in the blank pleadings and decrees must be FULLY filled in. NO BLANKS.
3. If anything contained in the forms you are using do not apply to you and your spouse, DO NOT include them in your petition or your decree.
4. All pleadings and decrees must be printed on 8 ½ by 11 inch paper.
5. All pleadings must be originals. If you use preprinted forms, do not photocopy.
6. If the divorce/decreed involves property, you MUST include the proper legal description and information concerning the bank or lienholder.
7. If children were born during the marriage, the decree MUST include the following:
 - a. Provision for custody of the children and with whom they will live.
 - b. A schedule of visitation.
 - c. Provision for the children to be covered by health insurance.
 - d. Provision for child support in accordance with the guidelines in the Texas Family Code. CHILD SUPPORT CANNOT BE WAIVED without the approval of the Court which will rarely be given.
 - e. If a child is not the child of the spouse but was born during the marriage, the child MUST be listed in the decree and paternity MUST be established.
 - f. Both parents MUST complete a parenting class, minimum four (4) hours, that will provide you with a certificate of completion. This certificate MUST be on file with the District Clerk's Office before a court date for the final divorce will be given.

8. Obtain the Bureau of Vital Statistics form from the District Clerk's Office and have it completely filled out before you come to court for your divorce.
9. ALL Decrees of Divorce MUST be submitted to the Judge hearing the case at least seven (7) days prior to your scheduled final hearing date.
10. All Court settings shall be obtained by contacting the court administrator/coordinator to which your case has been assigned.

If your case ends with the following:
