Guadalupe County Election Committee Appoints New Elections Administrator

Guadalupe County, TX – Guadalupe County Election Committee is pleased to announce the appointment of Cristian ‘Cris’ Pérez García as the County’s new Elections Administrator. Ms. Pérez García was sworn in to her new role on March 16 and will oversee election administration in Guadalupe County, ensuring voting processes are conducted with integrity, accuracy, and full compliance with Texas election law.

With six years of election administration experience across Oregon and Texas, Ms. Pérez García is committed to strengthening election systems, expanding voter access, and ensuring every Guadalupe County voter can participate with confidence.

“My goal is simple: remove barriers, provide access, and make sure every eligible voter in Guadalupe County can participate,” said Ms. Pérez García. “I am truly honored to serve the residents of Guadalupe County as Elections Administrator and look forward to working alongside this community. Election administration is more than a profession to me; it’s work I care deeply about. Over the past six years working in elections across Oregon and Texas, I’ve seen firsthand the dedication voters bring to the process, and that passion is what fuels the work I do every day.”

“My priority is ensuring every eligible voter has the opportunity to participate in our elections. Whether through vote-by-mail, curbside voting, or other accommodations required by law, I am committed to providing these services correctly so voters can cast their ballots with confidence. Supporting lifelong voters while encouraging the next generation to participate is also an important part of that work.”

Ms. Pérez García was officially selected by the Elections Committee comprised of Guadalupe County Officials, Judge Kyle Kutscher, County Clerk Teresa Kiel, County Tax Assessor-Collector Daryl John, and the Democratic Party Chair Glenda Henry and the Republican Party Chair Karen Hale.

“The election committee is confident that Ms. Pérez García’s extensive experience in election administration and her thorough knowledge of election laws make her exceptionally qualified to serve Guadalupe County residents,” said Teresa Kiel, Guadalupe County Clerk, on behalf of the election committee. “Her leadership in managing complex elections and commitment to transparency and accuracy will be a tremendous asset to our county.”

Ms. Pérez García adds, “I am grateful to the Elections Commission for their confidence in me and honored to follow a leader who made a lasting impact in this office. I look forward to working with the talented staff of the Guadalupe County Elections Administration Office to serve this county.”

Ms. Pérez García will office out of the Guadalupe County Elections Administration Building on Hwy 123 Bypass in Seguin.
