

GUADALUPE COUNTY PROCLAMATION

EST. 1846

Recognizing Economic Development Week in Guadalupe County, May 4-8, 2026

Whereas, economic development is essential to the vitality of Guadalupe County, supporting job creation, attracting private investment, encouraging entrepreneurship, and sustaining a strong and reliable tax base that funds critical public services, infrastructure, and community amenities; and

Whereas, the County's continued progress is driven by collaboration among local governments, educational institutions, chambers of commerce, workforce partners, and private industry, all working together to strengthen a competitive, adaptive, and resilient regional economy that benefits residents and businesses alike; and

Whereas, these partnerships promote responsible and strategic growth by encouraging business recruitment and expansion, enhancing workforce readiness through education and skills training, and investing in infrastructure improvements that increase connectivity, accessibility, and long-term economic opportunity; and

Whereas, a diverse economic base, combined with ongoing investment, innovation, and sound planning throughout Guadalupe County, positions the community for long-term stability, increased competitiveness, and shared prosperity for current and future generations.

Now, Therefore, Be It Proclaimed, in official recognition, we, the Commissioners Court of Guadalupe County, hereby proclaim May 4–8, 2026, as Economic Development Week in Guadalupe County, and reaffirm this County's commitment to advancing economic development efforts, strengthening the local economy, and enhancing the quality of life for our residents.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this 5th day of May, 2026.
