

Recognizing August 2025 as National Emergency Management Awareness Month in Guadalupe County

Whereas, emergencies and disasters can occur unexpectedly, posing significant threats to life, property, and the environment; and

Whereas, local emergency managers, community leaders, private sector emergency managers, State governments, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) dedicate countless hours to developing preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation programs to protect the lives and property of all persons living in the United States and U.S. territories; and

Whereas, emergency managers across the United States and U.S. territories are charged with establishing and maintaining the capabilities necessary to effectively direct, coordinate, and support emergency and disaster response and recovery efforts; and

Whereas, the mission areas of prevention, protection, mitigation, response, and recovery align with the core capabilities identified in the National Preparedness Goal; and

Whereas, emergency managers serve the nation by responding to countless emergencies and disasters, demonstrating commitment, compassion, and professionalism in protecting the public; and

Whereas, the efforts of our nation's emergency managers have helped millions of communities across the United States recover, rebuild, and become more resilient in the face of adversity; and

Now, Therefore, Be It Proclaimed, that Guadalupe County Commissioners Court recognizes August 2025 as National Emergency Management Awareness Month in Guadalupe County and calls upon citizens, community agencies, faith groups, and businesses to express their sincere appreciation for emergency managers in every sector who work diligently to prepare, protect, and serve our cities, counties, states, tribes, territories, regions, and organizations against all hazards and risks.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this 12th day of August 2025.
